Syndication of committed funds pursuant to the Senior Facilities Agreement

Further to the publication by Groupe Fnac ("Fnac") of its Offer Document on 18 May 2016 in connection with its offer for the entire issued and to be issued share capital of Darty plc, Fnac is today announcing that Crédit Agricole, Société Générale and Natixis have successfully syndicated €1,350,000,000 of committed funds pursuant to the senior facilities agreement dated 20 April 2016, as amended on 24 April 2016 (the "Senior Facilities Agreement") and have entered into a global transfer certificate evidencing these lender of record transfers. Details of the syndicate banks are set out in the global transfer certificate.

Fnac has also agreed to a request from its lenders for a technical amendment to clause 20.23 (Sanctions) and clause 23.21 (Sanctions) of the Senior Facilities Agreement. The amendment clarifies that these provisions are not to be interpreted or applied in any way that the obligations thereunder would result in an unlawful breach or expose any lender to any anti-boycott or blocking law, regulation or statute applicable (including EU Regulation (EC) 2271/96). These amendments have been documented in the global transfer certificate.

In addition, as part of the syndication process €200,000,000 of the commitments under the bridge facility have been made available as a term facility. The proceeds of the loans made available under the term facility will reduce the commitments under the bridge facility on a € per € basis. The term facility has been documented in the term facility commitment notice.

A copy of the global transfer certificate and the term facility commitment notice have been published on Fnac's website, www.groupe-fnac.com in accordance with Rule 26 of the City Code on Takeovers and Mergers.

Disclosure requirements of the City Code

Under Rule 8.3(b) of the City Code, any person who is, or becomes, interested (directly or indirectly) in 1 per cent. or more of any class of relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror must make a dealing disclosure if the person deals in any relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror. A dealing disclosure must contain details of the dealing concerned and of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s), save to the extent that these details have previously been disclosed under Rule 8 and have not changed. A dealing disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(b) applies must be made by no later than 3.30 p.m. (London time) on the Business Day following the date of the relevant dealing.

If two or more persons act together pursuant to an agreement or understanding, whether formal or informal, to acquire or control an interest in relevant securities of an offeree company or a securities exchange offeror, they will be deemed to be a single person for the purpose of Rule 8.3.

Dealing disclosures must be made by the offeree company, by any offeror and by any persons acting in concert with any of them (see Rules 8.1, 8.2 and 8.4 of the City Code).

Details of the offeree and offeror companies in respect of whose relevant securities dealing disclosures must be made can be found in the Disclosure Table on the Panel's website at www.thetakeoverpanel.org.uk, including details of the number of relevant securities in issue, when the offer period commenced and when any offeror was first identified. You should contact the Panel's Market Surveillance Unit on +44 (0)20 7638 0129 if you are in any doubt as to whether you are required to make an Opening Position Disclosure or a dealing disclosure.

For the purpose of this section (Disclosure requirements of the City Code) of this announcement, "Business Day" means a day on which the London Stock Exchange is open for the transaction of business.

Publication on websites

This announcement will be made available on the Fnac website, www.groupe-fnac.com, in accordance with Rule 26.1(b) of the City Code. The content of the website referred to in this announcement is not incorporated into and does not form part of this announcement.
