

BECOME A SHAREHOLDER

The purchase of Fnac Darty shares is made directly from the shareholder's account holder.

Fnac Darty may be held in three different ways: pure registered form (registered and held in your name in the Fnac Darty register), administered registered form (registered in the Fnac Darty register but held by a financial intermediary chosen by the shareholder), or bearer form (managed by a financial intermediary chosen by the shareholder).

- You wish to become a shareholder in pure registered form

Your shares are registered and held in your name in the Fnac Darty books. However, the administrative management of your shares has been delegated to Uptevia, which acts as the custody account keeper.

To register your Fnac Darty shares in pure registered form, you must make a request to your financial intermediary (you can download the form to fill out by clicking here).

Uptevia is your sole point of contact. You place your buy and sell orders exclusively with them.

Contact Uptevia:

- Phone: 08 00 00 75 35 (from France) or +33 1 49 37 82 36 (from abroad) Monday to Friday, from 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM (Paris time).

No custodial fee applies to the holding of shares in pure registered form. Brokerage fees amount to 0.30% excluding tax of the transaction amount when placing the order via the Uptevia website, with a minimum fee of 10 euros excluding tax – no bank commissions.

You will receive your notice of the General Meeting without any particular action required on your part.

- You wish to become a shareholder in administered registered form

To convert your Fnac Darty shares to administered registered form, you must make a request to your financial intermediary. Your account holder is still the financial intermediary, but they must report the details of your holdings to Uptevia so that you are known to Fnac Darty.

You place your buy and sell orders with your financial intermediary, who handles the execution of the order, the management of your account, the collection of dividends, and the sending of a transaction notice confirming the execution of the stock order.

Custodial and brokerage fees are charged by your financial intermediary.

You will receive your notice of the General Meeting without any particular action required on your part.

- You wish to become a shareholder in bearer form

This is the most common form of holding. The shares are called "bearer" because you are not registered in the Fnac Darty books. Your financial intermediary holds your securities account. They are the only ones to collect custody fees and can identify you. Your financial intermediary is your only point of contact.

Custodial and brokerage fees are charged by your financial intermediary.

You will be informed of the General Meeting by a notice published in the BALO at least 21? days before the date of the General Meeting. You can then request your notice of the meeting from your financial intermediary.

To attend the General Meeting, you must ask your financial intermediary to obtain an admission card in your name. They will then forward your request for an admission card to Uptevia (always accompanied by a share ownership certificate, confirmed two business days before the meeting). The admission card will be issued by Uptevia and sent to you by mail.

Fnac Darty is authorized to use legal provisions regarding the identification of shareholders holding securities that grant them, immediately or in the future, the right to vote in shareholder meetings. The Group regularly conducts so-called TPI (Identifiable Bearer Securities) surveys.
